Bio-note	After completing my B. A. And M. A. from Presidency University, I am currently pursuing M. Phil. from Centre for Studies in Social Sciences, Calcutta. My dissertation looks into the ways in which anthropology as a discipline emerged out of an intersection of multiple scholarly fields and intellectual sites in late colonial Bengal. I am broadly interested in rural sociology, anthropology of state, agrarian history, art history, history of ideas and the political economy of the Indian Society. Earlier, I have worked for the Planning Commission of India and Google Art & Culture.
